(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., July 17.—Richmond won from Portsmouth, 1 to 0, in a contest of five innings this afternoon, the game being cut short by a heavy downpour of rain. Richmond's run was made in the first inning by Titman, the first man up, belted off with a hit, and made the circuit of the bases with a head sacrifice by Reeve, coupled with loose playing by the Trimmers before they pulled themselves together. Loos had a bally chance to the things up after a rattling two-bagger, but lost it through his sloveness in getting off third-base. With ordinary speed he could have scored with yards to spare. The game was otherwise without distinctive features. The score:

Portsmouth.

BOTH GAMES GO TO MAGIC CITY

First Was Hard Fought, but Danville Did but Poorly in Second.

ROANOKE, VA., July 17.—By a close margin the locals took the first game from Danville this afternoon, the score being, 3 to 2. Flowers and Reeve, 1b., were the stars.

The game went to the Crew on errors, the first being to second and a single, and the second on three errors in succession.

Murry pitched well, as did Fox. Sharp fielding for both teams kept the score down, and Fox could not be found when hits would have counted.

The fans are hammering Manager Grim hard for playing amateurs in Monday and Tuesday's games, and the afternoon paper contains communications from a number demanding a change in the management.

The score:
